

James C. Tolman House
Near Ashland, Oregon

Jamieson Co.

(South of Ashland; built 1856).

HABS No. 39-0-42

HABS
ORE

15. ASH. V

1-

PHOTOGRAPHS

District No. 39

Historic American Buildings Survey
Jamieson Parker, District Officer
807 Spaulding Building, Portland, Oregon

HAES
ORE
15. ASH.
1

JAMES C. TOLMAN HOUSE
Ashland Vicinity, Jackson County, Oregon

Owner: Fred C. Homes and his sister, Mrs. Suzanne Carter.

Date of Erection: late 1850's.

Architect:

Builder: local pioneer mechanics for Tolman

Present Condition:

Number of Stories: Two

Materials of Construction: Frame

Other Existing Records:

Additional Data: Tolman was County Judge, later Surveyor-General of Oregon. His home was a noted center of hospitality.

The house is a typical farm home; the land is still being farmed.

References: The owners at Ashland.
Tax Assessor, Jackson County.
Pioneers' Association (Miss Alice Hanley), Medford.

PRINTS & PHOTOGRAPHS

See Jan 1938 - JMD.